SKATE

Since 1999, All Star has been providing summer skate camps led by star skaters and top skate coaches. Our skate camp offerings now include camps in Colorado, Oregon, North Carolina, Australia and at the World's 2nd largest skatepark on Grand Cayman Island.

Colorado Skate Camps | Dates: July
Ability: all abilities welcome

Is this for me?

Our skate camps offer something to every skater. Whether you like to skate street or park, you are going to have a lot of fun at our camps. If you like summer days filled with fun and skateboarding, then these camps are for you. Whether you're from Colorado or from the other side of the globe this camp gives you the chance to skate new places. We don't just go to the skateparks that you know, we also have a collection of street spots and private locales to keep your skate feet happy. And to top it all off you'll get to skate all these places with some new friends and coaches that rip!

Overview / Highlights:

Our Destination Denver Skateboard Camp will allow you to explore the Mile High City as only a skateboarder can! This unique Colorado skateboard camp is one of a kind. With the spectacular Rocky Mountains as a backdrop, there is a skateboard park to suit every taste, and we'll hit all the best spots. This skate camp will be your guide to an ultimate adventure of Colorado summer skateboarding. From the massive Denver City Skatepark in historic LoDo on the edge of Downtown, to the infamous snakerun at the Highlands Ranch Redstone Skatepark, with many other choices in between and beyond! We'll descend on the indoor Skateboard Park, tear it up in a massive session, then explore the nooks and crannies of Denver while street skating.

Need more? Well, how 'bout spending an afternoon at one the biggest and coolest water and amusement parks in the US, Elitch Gardens! Each camp will offer opportunities to see what Denver offers those without wheels.

Had enough?? We'll retreat to the foothills for a truly remarkable camping experience on the edge of the High Country wilderness. This summer skatecamp has it all! A skate camp, designed and coached by international professional and amateur skateboarders, this All Star Skate Camp will leave you planning to return year after year!

Whether you've just caught the fever and want to learn to skate, or you've been skating for years and want to learn new skateboarding tricks, or you simply want the experience of meeting and riding with other skaters, this unique summer camp will fill your skateboarding needs and more.

We'll show you where the locals skate, why Colorado is a top summer destination, and where to buy your skateboarding equipment when you're in the Mile High City skateboarding. Do not miss this opportunity for an urban skating adventure balanced by the incredible natural beauty that only exists in Colorado!!
